Common Interview Questions in HR round

- 1) Tell me a little about yourself.
- 2) Why do you want to work in this company?
- 3) Do you consider yourself successful?
- 4) Are you willing to travel?
- 5) What are your salary expectations?
- 6) What would you consider your greatest strengths & weakness?
- 7) What motivates you?
- 8) Tell me about your dream job.

1. Tell me a little about yourself.

I am Andrew Bell, a computer graduate from MIT. I like to apply my analytical skills to develop world class products in the XYZ domain. When I am not working, I volunteer to NGO's as it gives me an opportunity to serve needy people. I also travel a lot and an active member of XXX travel group or club through which I could explore my hobby more.

2) Why do you want to work in this company?

I was delighted to see on your website that your feature employees are talking about how great it is to work for your company. These days so many people seem to despise where they work for one reason or another. It's wonderful to see that your employees are proud to talk about how much they love their jobs.

3) Do you consider yourself successful?

I feel successful with continuous progress. I find exciting when I am allowed to implement new ideas and see its fruition. I would define my success as what I have learned through years and use them when circumstances arises or demands

4) Are you willing to travel?

Yes. I love traveling. Adjusting in new places and meeting new people would be a delightful experience for me.

5) What are your salary expectations?

As of now, I haven't thought much about it. I'm more focused on learning the requirements for this position that I am applying for.

6) What would you consider your greatest strengths & weakness?

My strength is my ability to convert negative work environment into a positive and at the same time, developing a supportive team. I am also capable of keeping many projects on track and ensuring deadlines are met. As far as my weakness is concerned I get impatient sometimes in order to get everything done very quickly. To tackle the problem, I am trying to re-consider the to-do list and prioritize the tasks.

7) Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

I am flexible with others and enjoy the roles that involves leadership. Although, my initial focus and priority would be to involve actively in the job I am applying for, I would very much keen to take management or supervisory role in 3-5 years...or less. I enjoy supporting my team members, and always try to set a good example for others.

8) What motivates you?

Responsibility towards work motivates me the most and my aim within any company is to move up to greater levels of responsibility to achieve each goal with better responsibilities.

9) Tell me about your dream job.

The only dream job I've always had was a job that keeps me busy, a job wherein I get to contribute to the company's success.

10) Why did you leave your last job?

I left my previous job because I feel I want to do more, to get hold of a greater opportunity to serve.

11) What experience do you have in this field?

I have created several systems that are still in used to this day. Some of the systems I'm proud include [mention those remarkable ones]

12) What do co-workers say about you?

My co-worker [name] at [company] never gets tired of telling other people how brilliant I am when it comes to [specific task].

13) Why should we hire you?

I am quite aware of the company's mission of acquiring the largest consumer base in the area and to become the front-runner in supplier's or provider's community. My domain knowledge and hold over the customer base can make a big contribution towards this. I would really enjoy this challenge of growing this business bigger.

14) Are you a team player?

Yes, definitely. While I will deny the fact that I can work independently with minimal supervision, I'm also one companion every leader would ever wanted to be in his team. Whatever task is assigned to me, I make sure it meets and exceeds what is expected of me. I also make it a point to reach out to teammates whenever needed.

15) What is your philosophy towards work?

I have only one philosophy when it comes to work: every piece of work, regardless of size, has to be done on time and in the right manner.

16) What have you learned from mistakes on the job?

I learned that without proper coordination, even the simplest task could cause problems in a project. I had this problem during my first job. From that time on, I made sure every I thing follows every detail and coordination.

17) Describe your management style.

Basically, my management style comes with promptness and flexibility. To make sure goals are achieved, I religiously study and make plans down to the smallest detail. While I do implement a strict sense of being time bounded, I also add reasonable allowances and make room for contingencies.

18) How would you know you were successful on this job?

Being successful means goals that are set are met. Being successful also means standards are not only reach, but also even exceeded wherever possible.

19) Are you willing to work overtime? Nights? Weekends?

I understand that being asked to work for an extended number of hours comes with a good reason in the first place, so I'm ok with it. It an extra effort means something for the company, I'll be happy to do it.

How to gain it: To generate goodwill, lend a hand when you see a co-worker in need. (“Hey, I know you have a ton on your plate. How can I help?”) Another way to build rapport is to cover for a colleague while she’s on vacation, says business etiquette and career coach Karen Litzinger.

3. Adaptability

Why you need it: Things don’t always go as planned, and instead of digging in your heels, you need to be able to pivot and find alternate solutions. “Successful leaders are the ones who know how to be flexible when problems arise,” says Robinson.

Why employers look for it: “The speed of change in any given workplace is so rapid,” says Joel Garfinkle, executive coach and author of Getting Ahead: Three Steps to Take Your Career to the Next Level. Consequently, employers need workers who can adapt to industry shifts and keep the company current.

How to gain it: Push yourself to be an early adopter of change. “For example, adapting to technology without mourning what used to be true yesterday is crucial for people to be seen as someone who is capable of meeting new challenges,” says Garfinkle. Inquire about training sessions and offer to teach your co-workers what you learn.

4. Problem solving

Why you need it: When something goes wrong, you can either complain or take action. Tip: It’s the latter that will get you noticed. Knowing how to think on your feet can make you indispensable to an employer.

Why employers look for it: Nothing is a given. Companies rely on problem solvers—a.k.a. their top performers—to navigate unexpected challenges.

How to gain it: “Always approach your boss with a solution, not a problem,” says Robinson. So when an issue crops up, sit down and think through how you’re going to address it before bringing it to your boss’ attention.

5. Critical observation

Why you need it: Data doesn’t mean much if you don’t know how to interpret it. Is there a pattern emerging? What else should you be looking for? Being a critical observer can help make you a better worker all around.

Why employers look for it: Companies need critical thinkers—people who bring a fresh perspective and offer intuitive solutions and ideas to help the company get a leg up on the competition or improve internal processes.

How to gain it: To be a critical observer, you need to be able to analyze information and put it to use. One tactic is to try to identify patterns of behavior at work. For example, does your boss actually read the weekly sales reports? What was her reaction to bad news in the staff meeting? What's the best time of day to approach your manager with a question? By observing how people respond to the constant flow of information you can better understand the critical aspects of improving business operations.

6. Conflict resolution/work ethics

Why you need it: "Any time you put more than one person into an organization, there is going to be conflict," says Robinson. "It's human nature." Therefore, being able to resolve issues with co-workers will help you maintain relationships with peers and work more effectively.

Why employers want it: Being able to constructively work through disagreements with people is a sure indicator of maturity—as well as leadership potential. Someone like this helps to promote a healthy, collaborative workplace.

How to gain it: The best way to resolve disagreements between co-workers is to address issues directly but delicately. So, when stepping in as a mediator, let both parties air their grievances in a judgment-free environment and then work together to find a solution.

7. Leadership

Why you need it: Having confidence and a clear vision can help influence your co-workers and get them on board with your ideas now and in the future. Displaying such leadership skills helps you gain visibility within an organization, which can lead to more opportunities for promotions or salary bumps.

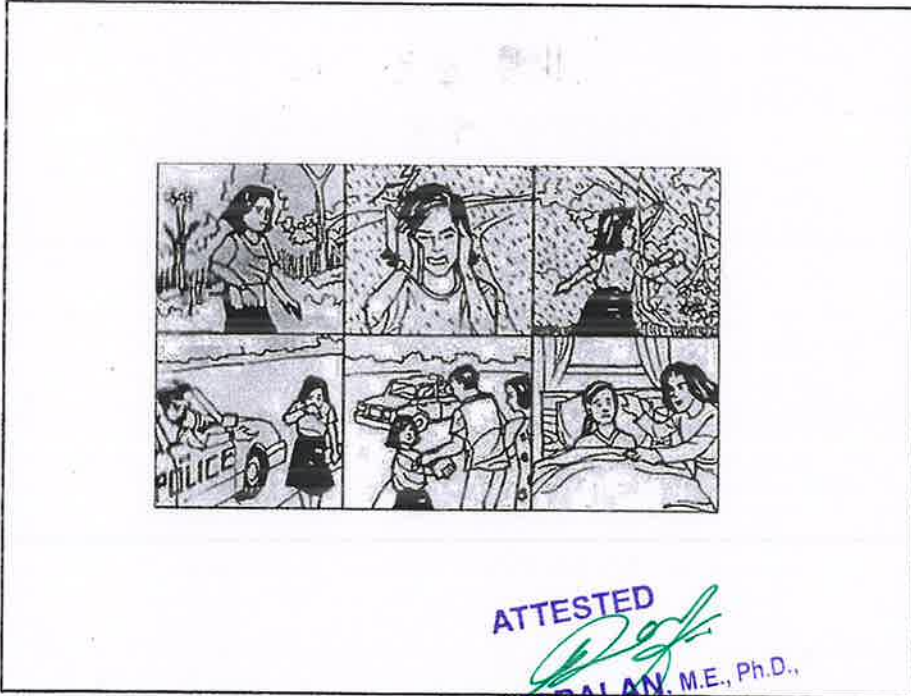

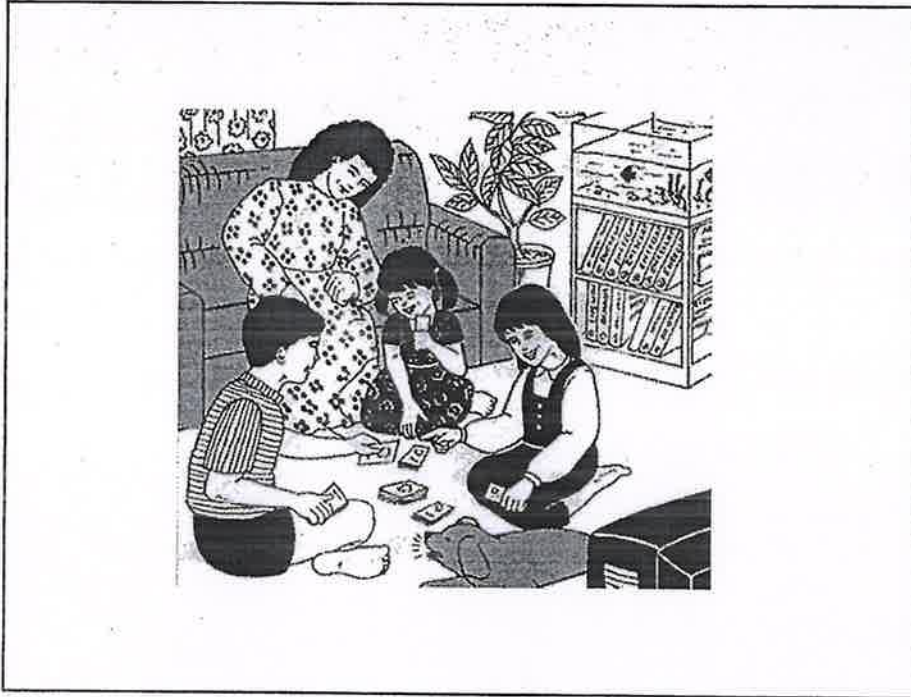

Why employers want it: Bosses and managers are always looking for employees with leadership potential because those workers will one day be taking over the reins and building on the company's legacy.

How to gain it: Being a leader isn't merely about getting people to do what you want. Leadership means inspiring and helping others reach their full potential. One way to do that is to become the internship supervisor, which gives you the opportunity to manage people, learn how to motivate a team, and take on more responsibility.

EMAIL ETIQUETTES:

Why do we need email etiquette?

Research shows making errors seriously impacts how people see you. In one study, participants who read an email with grammatical errors thought the writer was less conscientious, intelligent, and trustworthy than those who read the same email without errors.

In a separate experiment, people who applied for funding were less likely to be funded and received less favorable terms when their loan requests had spelling mistakes.

This shouldn't be too surprising. If you read an email riddled with typos, you probably think one of two things:

- The sender doesn't know basic spelling and grammar
- The sender didn't care enough about this message to review it before sending

Email punctuation

Punctuation is subtle when you use it correctly and obvious when you don't. Don't make your recipients cringe -- memorize these rules and follow them religiously.

1. Terminal punctuation

Every line should end with a terminal punctuation mark, i.e. a period, question mark, or exclamation mark. If you skip terminal punctuation, it'll look like you never completed your thought.

Here's an example:

Wrong:

I talked to Finance, and they approved the agreement

Right:

I talked to Finance, and they approved the agreement.

Use question and exclamation marks sparingly. If you use too many question marks in one email, you'll sound like you're interrogating the recipient.

"What's your status? Have you talked to your team yet? Are you free for a call tomorrow at noon so we can discuss any potential changes?"

And if you go overboard with exclamation marks, you'll come across as hyper and overexcited.

"Thanks again for a productive conversation yesterday! Good news, I talked to Finance and we're good to go! Can't wait to work together!"

2. Semicolons (;)

A semicolon can also connect two unique, but related, sentences. It cannot act as a comma.

Wrong:

She can call me tomorrow, she can give me an answer then.

Right:

She can call me tomorrow; she can give me an answer then.

3. Comma (,)

One of the most common bloopers is adding commas where they don't belong. While I could devote an entire post to proper comma usage (English major talking), here are the most important rules:

Use before a coordinating conjunction (and, but, for, or, nor, so, yet) that's connecting two independent clauses.

"I worked with a similar client last year, and their open rates went up 20% in one month.

Use after a dependent clause at the beginning of a sentence.

"After improving their subject lines, open rates improved dramatically.

Use to separate items in a list.

"I focused on email length, readability, and content.

4. Salutation punctuation

There are a few different ways to punctuate your salutation (the first line of your email where you address the recipient by name).

If it's a formal email, use a colon.

Dear Ms. Frost:

If it's a relatively casual email, use a comma.

Dear Aja,

And if you're on close terms with someone, you can use a dash.

Hi Aja —

Email grammar

Unless you devote your full attention to studying grammar (which is much less lucrative than sales), you're bound to make the occasional mistake. But no one will care if they've never heard of that esoteric rule, either. Just steer clear of basic mix-ups that your prospect will definitely catch, and you'll be golden.

Know the difference between:

- There/they're/their
- Its/it's
- Effect/affect
- Your/you're
- Too/two/to
- Loose/lose
- I/me/myself

Pro tip: Do you ever wish you could have an editor reading over your shoulder? You can -- kind of. Grammarly is a free tool that scans everything you write for grammar and spelling mistakes. Not only will it catch issues in real time, it'll also send you a weekly report highlighting common trends.

Emojis in email

I understand the urge to add a smiley face to a potentially harsh sentence or cap off a joke with a laughing emoji.

However, unless your recipient has already used one, resist temptation. Research reveals including emojis in work emails is bad for your reputation: They make you look less competent (and they don't have any effect on how friendly you seem).

Email subject lines

Your subject line should be descriptive and relatively short. Ideally, it should give the recipient a good idea whether they want to open your message.

Bad subject line:

"Hi

What are you emailing them about? It's completely unclear.

Good subject line:

"Summary of 12/2 call

This line leaves no doubt about the contents of the email.

Email salutations

Above, we covered which punctuation to use in the salutation. You also need to pick a greeting -- which can be formal or informal, depending on whom you're emailing and what your relationship is like.

Most of the time, a casual salutation is appropriate. You'll set a friendly, easygoing tone and communicate confidence.

Casual email greetings include:

- Hi
- Hey
- Hey/hi there
- Good [morning, afternoon]
- [Name]

If you're reaching out to someone for the first time -- or they work in a conservative industry -- skew more formal.

Formal email greetings include:

- Dear [first name]
- Dear Mr./Ms. [last name]

And which ones should you never use (not even as a joke)?

- Yo: Too informal
- Hey!: Too intimate and eager
- [Name]!: Too off-putting
- To whom it may concern: Too impersonal
- Dear sir or madam: Too stiff
- Hi friend: Too creepy
- Gentlemen: Too old-fashioned
- All: Too cold

HCF AND LCM

1. Find the HCF if $2^3 \times 3^2 \times 5 \times 7^4$, $2^2 \times 3^5 \times 5^2 \times 7^6$, $2^3 \times 5^3 \times 7^2$
2. Find the HCF of 108, 1134, 1215
3. Find the LCM of $2^2 \times 3^3 \times 5 \times 7^2$, $2^3 \times 3^2 \times 5^2 \times 7^4$, $2 \times 3 \times 5^3 \times 7 \times 11$.
4. Find the HCF and LCM of $2/3, 8/9, 16/81, 10/27$
5. Two numbers are in the ratio of 15:11. If their HCF is 13, find the numbers
6. The HCF of two numbers is 11 and their LCM is 693, if one of the numbers is 77, find the other.
7. The least number which should be added to 2497 so that the sum is exactly divisible by 5, 6, 4 and 3 is:
8. The least number which when divided by 5, 6, 7, and 8 leaves a remainder 3, but when divided by 9 leaves no remainder, is:
9. The L.C.M. of two numbers is 48. The numbers are in the ratio 2 : 3. Then sum of the number is:
10. Three different containers contain 496 liters, 403 liters and 713 liters of mixtures of milk and water respectively. What biggest measure can measure all the different quantities exactly?

SIMPLIFICATION

1. If $x/y = 6/5$ find the value of $x^2 + y^2 / x^2 - y^2$
2. find the value of $4 - \frac{5}{1 + \frac{1}{3 + \left(\frac{1}{2 + \frac{1}{4}}\right)}}$
3. find the value of $\left(1 - \frac{1}{3}\right) \left(1 - \frac{1}{4}\right) \left(1 - \frac{1}{5}\right) \dots \dots \dots \left(1 - \frac{1}{100}\right)$
4. When an amount was distributed among 4 boys, each of them got Rs. 80 more than the amount received by each boy when the same amount is distributed equally among 18 boys. What was the amount?
5. Mr. Bhaskar is on tour and he has Rs. 360 for his expenses. If he exceed his tour by 4 days, he must cut down his daily expenses by Rs. 3 for how many days is Mr. Bhaskar on tour?
6. $2 - [2 - \{2 - 2(2 + 2)\}] = ?$
7. The value of $\frac{(6+6+6+6) \div 6}{4+4+4+4}$
8. $\frac{180 \times 15 - 12 \times 20}{140 \times 8 + 2 \times 55} = ?$
9. $20\frac{1}{2} + 30\frac{1}{3} - 15\frac{1}{6} = ?$
10. $\frac{1}{4}$ of a tank holds 135 liters of water. What part of the tank is full if it contains 180 litres of water?

PROBLEMS ON NUMBERS

1. Find a number such that when 15 is subtracted from 7 times the number, the result is 10 more than twice the number.
2. The sum of two numbers is 184, if one third of the one exceeds one seventh of the other by 8, find the smaller number.
3. A fraction becomes $\frac{2}{3}$ when 1 is added to both, its numerator and denominator. And it becomes $\frac{1}{2}$ when 1 is subtracted from both the numerator and denominator. Find the fraction
4. If three numbers are added in pairs, the sums equal 10, 19 and 21. Find the numbers.
5. A number is doubled and 9 is added. If the resultant is trebled, it becomes 75. What is that number?
6. Find the number which when multiplied by 15 is increased by 196.
7. If the sum of one half and one fifth of a number exceeds one third of that number by $7\frac{1}{3}$, the number is :
8. The product of two numbers is 120 and the sum of their squares is 289. The sum of the numbers is :

PROBLEMS ON AGES

1. Rajeev's age after 15 years will be 5 times his age 5 years back. What is the present age of Rajeev?
2. The ages of two persons differ by 16 years, if 6 years ago, the elder one be 3 times as old as the younger one, find their present ages.
3. One year ago, the ratio of Gaurav's and Sachin's age was 6:7 respectively. Four years hence, this ratio would become 7:8. How old is sachin?
4. The total age of the ages of Jayant, Prem and Saransh is 93 Years. Ten year ago, the ratio of their ages was 2:3:4. What is the present age of saransh?
5. The ratio of the father's age and to his son's age is 7:3. The product of their ages is 756. The ratio of their ages after 6 years will be:
6. A is two years older than B who is twice as old as C. If the total of the ages of A, B and C be 27, then how old is B?
7. Eighteen years ago, a father was three times as old as his son. Now the father is only twice as old as his son. Then the sum of the present ages of the son and the father is :
8. The total age of A and B is 12 Years more than the total age of B and C. C is how many years younger than A?
9. The ratio between the present ages of P and Q is 5: 7 respectively. If the difference between Q's present age and P's age after 6 years is 2, what is the total of P's and Q's present ages ?
10. Present ages of X and Y are in the ratio 5:6 respectively. Seven years hence this ratio will become 6:7 respectively. What is X's present age in years?

RATIO AND PROPORTION

1. If $a : b = 5 : 9$ and $b : c = 4 : 7$, find $a : b : c$.
2. Divide Rs. 560 in the ratio 5 : 3.
3. If $a/3 = b/4 = c/5$, then $a:b:c$ is:
4. The salaries A, B, C are in the ratio 2 : 3 : 5. If the increments of 15%, 10% and 20% are allowed respectively in their salaries, then what will be new ratio of their salaries?
5. If Rs. 460 be divided into three parts, proportional to $1/2:2/3:3/4$, then the first part is:
6. The ratio of the number of boys and girls in a college is 7 : 8. If the percentage increase in the number of boys and girls be 20% and 10% respectively, what will be the new ratio?
7. In a mixture 60 liters, the ratio of milk and water 2 : 1. If the this ratio is to be 1 : 2, then the quantity of water to be further added is
8. In a bag, there are coins of 25 p, 10 p and 5 p in the ratio of 1 : 2 : 3. If there is Rs. 30 in all, how many 5 p coins are there?
9. The fourth proportional to 5, 8, 15 is
10. If 40% of a number is equal to two-third of another number, what is the ratio of first number to the second number?

PARTNERSHIP

1. A, B and C started a business by investing Rs. 1,20,000, Rs. 1,35,000 and ,Rs.1,50,000 respectively. Find the share of each, out of an annual profit of Rs. 56,700.
2. Alfred started a business investing Rs. 45,000. After 3 months, Peter joined him with a capital of Rs. 60,000. After another 6 months, Ronald joined them with a capital of Rs. 90,000. At the end of the year, they made a profit of Rs. 16,500. Find the lire of each.
3. A, Band C enter into partnership. A invests 3 times as much as B and B invests two-third of what C invests. At the end of the year, the profit earned is Rs. 6600. What is the share of B ?
4. A invested Rs. 76,000 in a business. After few months, B joined him Rs. 57,000. At the end of the year, the total profit was divided between them in ratio 2 : 1. After how many months did B join?
5. A, B, C enters into a partnership investing Rs 35000 Rs 45000 and Rs 55000 respectively. The respective shares of A, B and C in annual profit of Rs 40,500 are
6. A and B started a business in partnership investing Rs. 20,000 and Rs. 15,000 respectively. After six months, C joined them with Rs. 20,000. What will be B's share in total profit of Rs. 25,000 earned at the end of 2 years from the starting of the business?
7. A began a business with Rs. 85,000. He was joined afterwards by B with Rs. 42,500. For how much period does B join, if the profits at the end of the year are divided in the ratio of 3 : 13

8. A starts business with Rs. 3500 and after 5 months, B joins with A as his partner. After a year, the profit is divided in the ratio 2 : 3. What is B's contribution in the capital?

9. A, B and C enter into a partnership. They invest Rs. 40,000, Rs. 80,000 and Rs. 1,20,000 respectively. At the end of the first year, B withdraws Rs. 40,000, while at the end of the second year, C withdraws Rs. 80,000. In what ratio will the profit be shared at the end of 3 years?

10. A and B entered into partnership with capitals in the ratio 4 and 5. After 3 months, A withdrew $\frac{1}{4}$ of his capital and B withdrew $\frac{1}{5}$ of his capital. The gain at the end of 10 months was Rs.760. The share of A in this profit is:

SEATING ARRANGEMENTS

1. A, P, R, X, S and Z are sitting in a row. S and Z are in the centre. A and P are at the ends. R is sitting to the left of A. Who is to the right of P?

2. P, Q, R, S, T, U, V and W are sitting round the circle and are facing the centre:

1. P is second to the right of T who is the neighbor of R and V. 2. S is not the neighbor of P. 3. V is the neighbor of U. 4. Q is not between S and W. W is not between U and S.

1. Which one is immediate right to the V ?

3. Five girls are sitting on a bench to be photographed. Seema is to the left of Rani and to the right of Bindu. Mary is to the right of Rani. Reeta is between Rani and Mary.

1. Who is sitting immediate right to Reeta ?

2. Who is in the middle of the photograph?

3. Who is second from the right?

4. Each of these questions are based on the information given below:

1. A, B, C, D and E are five men sitting in a line facing to south - while M, N, O, P and Q are five ladies sitting in a second line parallel to the first line and are facing to North.

2. B who is just next to the left of D, is opposite to Q.

3. C and N are diagonally opposite to each other.

4. E is opposite to O who is just next right of M.

5. P who is just to the left of Q, is opposite to D.

6. M is at one end of the line.

1. Who is sitting third to the right of O ?

2. In the original arrangement who is sitting just opposite to N ?

3. Which of the following pair is diagonally opposite to each other ?

Report on Phase I Training for Final year CSE, IT, ECE, EEE, MCA

Introduction

Cracking an interview and getting selected for the job position is considered to be a challenging task. Having a right skillset for the respective job designation is a major concern. Considering this the Placement Cell, EGS Pillay Engineering College, conducted Phase I placement training for final year students of ECE, CSE, IT, MCA, EEE, MECH. As a part of the training process, students had Aptitude and communication classes.

Objectives

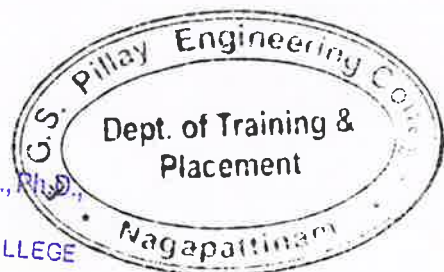

- Develop effective communication skills (spoken and written).
- Develop effective presentation skills.
- Develop all-round personalities with a mature outlook to function effectively in different circumstances.
- The sole objective of imparting aptitude training is to make students able to critically evaluate various real-life situations by resorting to an analysis of key issues and factors.
- Take part effectively in various selection procedures adopted by the recruiters
- The program gave our students much-needed Industry exposure and put on the right path to achieve the goal of getting placed in a renowned organization.

Outcome

Students were able to

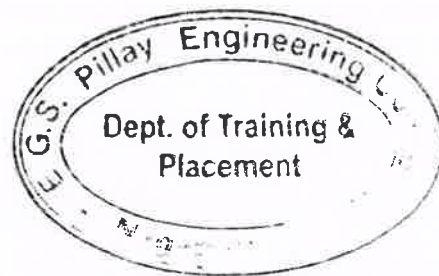

- Understand the importance of Resume & Self Introduction
- Working on Personality changes, body Language
- Answer very effectively of certain questions in One - One HR round
- Understand and apply the logical and reasoning concepts in aptitude

Conclusion

The training has been conducted from 07.06.2017 to 24.06.2017. This program has benefited nearly 286 final year students of various streams CSE, IT, ECE, EEE & MCA. Mr. Mohankumar, Head of Training & Placement Department gave a welcome address and insisted the students to make use of the training. The training has been conducted in two sessions - forenoon and afternoon session. This program has also covered skills and guidelines for Group discussion. Students also learned to build a professional resume, develop skills to stand out in the crowd and improve the chances of getting interviews.

Summary on “Evening Training”

Cracking an interview and getting selected for the job position is considered to be a challenging task. Having a right skillset for the respective job designation is a major concern. Considering this the Placement Cell, EGS Pillay Engineering College, conducted evening training for final year students. As a part of the training process, students had Aptitude and communication classes. The main aim of the training is to develop effective communication skills (spoken and written), to develop effective presentation skills, to develop all-round personalities with a mature outlook to function effectively in different circumstances and the sole objective of imparting aptitude training is to make students able to critically evaluate various real-life situations by resorting to an analysis of key issues and factors. Evening training has been conducted from 19.07.2017 to 28.07.2017. This program has benefited nearly 38 final year students of various streams. The training has been conducted from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. on daily basis.

This program has also covered skills and guidelines for Group discussion. Students also learned to build a professional resume, develop skills to stand out in the crowd and improve the chances of getting interviews. By end of the session students were able to understand the importance of Resume & Self Introduction, working on Personality changes, body language, answer very effectively of certain questions in One - One HR round, understand and apply the logical and reasoning concepts in aptitude

Phase II Training for Final year CSE, IT, ECE, EEE, MCA

Introduction

Cracking an interview and getting selected for the job position is considered to be a challenging task. Having a right skillset for the respective job designation is a major concern. Considering this the Placement Cell, EGS Pillay Engineering College, conducted Phase II placement training for final year students of ECE, CSE, IT, MCA. As a part of the training process, students had training in advanced aptitude concepts and communication classes.

Objective of the training

- To develop professional behavior among students.
- To improve verbal and non-verbal communication
- To apply to concepts of logical thinking (aptitude) in programming
- Practice to solve aptitude in reduced time

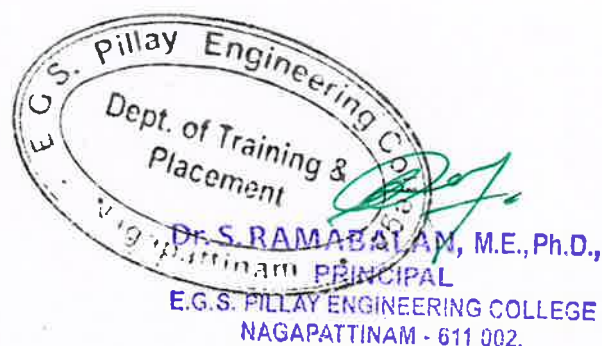

Outcome of the training

Students were able to

- Good understanding about GD and interview
- Capable to approach programming concepts with logical thinking
- Improved interview etiquettes

Conclusion

The training has been conducted from 11.12.2017 to 16.12.2017. This program has benefited nearly 286 final year students of various streams CSE, IT, ECE, MCA. The training has been conducted in two sessions - forenoon and afternoon session. This program has also had mock GD, various levels of mock interview and continuous aptitude practice and assessment
